generously proportioned, with plush carpets, floor-to-ceiling glass and two gorgeous ensuite bathrooms. The star of the three separate living areas is the large media room, with ample space for the whole family.

The long list of high-end features at this property is fitting of its overall quality. From the secure electric gate and intercom system at the entrance, to the weather-activated Vergola system - everything has been carefully considered.

The home has ducted AC, C-BUS lighting and full screening throughout, and a feature fireplace that heats the entire home through the colder months. There is also a mesh WiFi network for ultimate connectivity.

An entertainer's delight:

The outdoor areas are equally impressive, and perfect for entertaining around the expansive north-facing alfresco. Boasting two in-ground pools, enjoy morning swims in the award-winning 14m lap pool, or relax in the family pool, with its hardwood timber deck and direct access from a guest room.

The long driveway ensures that the property enjoys peace and privacy, and is set on a generous 3886m². The fully fenced and low-maintenance landscaped gardens are a delight, and are both child and pet friendly. Your gardens capture perfect views of the surrounding countryside, and feature mature trees, fruit trees and newly installed planter boxes.

Parking and storage options are plentiful. With a double lock-up garage, a double carport and a powered 3-bay American barn with mezzanine flooring. This is also ample onsite parking for your guests.

An ideal location:

Woombye is centrally located on the Sunshine Coast, making it an ideal and attractive location.

Just minutes to thriving Woombye town with its independent cafes, boutiques and railway station. There are excellent local schools including Suncoast Christian College, just 2km away! An easy 15 minute drive to Maroochydore CBD and Sunshine Plaza, and just 5 minutes from the Bruce Highway.
